RESPONSE TO NOTICE OF MISSING PARTS

APPLICANT (S): Ullrich WÜNSCHE et al. DOCKET NO: P01,0281
SERIAL NO.: 09/914,899 ART UNIT: None assigned
FILED: September 4, 2001 EXAMINER: None Assigned
TITLE: Method and Arrangement for Optimizing an Amplitude-Modulated Optical Signal

Assistant Commissioner for Patents,
Washington, D.C. 20231

Dear Sir:

This is a response to the Notice of Missing Requirements Under 35 U.S.C. 371 dated December 17, 2001.

This notice indicates that a fee of $130 is due under 37 C.F.R. 1.492(e) since the declaration was filed later than 30 months from the priority date.

The priority date is March 1, 1999. Thirty months from the priority date is September 1, 2001, which falls on a Saturday. Monday, September 3, 2001 is a federal holiday. Thus, the first day that these documents could have been filed on or after the thirty month priority date is Tuesday, September 4, 2001.

Applicants have attached copies of the Express Mail receipt identified as EJ552525974US and dated September 4, 2001 as well as the Certificate of Express Mail with the same date indicating that the Executed Declaration was sent.

Thus, Applicants believe that no fee is due. However, in the event that a fee is still believed due, Applicants authorize that it be deducted from deposit account no. 50-1519 (as was authorized on the originally submitted PTO-1390 form).

Respectfully submitted,

Mark Bergner (Reg. No. 45,877)
